Hello Dr. Veksler,
I cannot express how much I am going to miss the entire Caldwell Family.

During my time at Caldwell, your presence has been a constant source of motivation and inspiration for me. You have changed my life and my mindset.

As I start this new journey, I am sure wherever I will be in the next five years, whatever I will be achieving, it will be because of your mentorship. From writing recommendation letters to nominating me for hackathons, and supporting me in my research endeavors, I am immensely grateful for everything you've done for me. As I compose this email, tears well up in my eyes, as the decision to leave Caldwell has been a difficult one. However, due to personal and financial reasons, I have to start this new journey. But, I hope it's for my best.

I hope our paths cross again in the future, and I will consider myself blessed to receive an education from you or work with you again.

I cannot express how blessed I feel to have been one of your students.
Thank you so much for everything, Dr. Veksler.

Warm Regards,
